

JOHN THOMAS MELLEIN, O.P.
CURRICULUM VITAE
(FALL 2016)
DOMINICAN SCHOOL OF PHILOSOPHY AND THEOLOGY
2301 VINE STREET, BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA 94708

EDUCATION

The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.
Ph.D. (cand.), School of Philosophy
Dissertation (in progress):
“Thomas Aquinas on Substance: A Study Across the Philosophical Sciences”
Director: Gregory T. Doolan

The Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology, Berkeley, CA
M.A. (Theology, option II), 2007
M. Div., 2007
M.A. (Philosophy), 2003

Thomas Aquinas College, Santa Paula, CA
B.A. (Liberal Arts), 1999

COURSES TAUGHT

The Catholic University of America (Fall 2010–Spring 2013)
Courses Taught (undergraduate):
The Classical Mind
The Modern Mind
The Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology
Courses Taught (graduate):
Metaphysics, Spring 2005
Aristotelian Logic, Fall 2002

AREAS OF RESEARCH INTEREST

Thomistic Philosophy, particularly Metaphysics and Anthropology
Ancient Philosophy, particularly Aristotle and Plato
Political Philosophy and Political Theory

CONFERENCES AND PRESENTATIONS

Session Moderator, Dominican Colloquia in Berkeley, Summer 2014
Planning Committee Member, Dominican Colloquia in Berkeley, 2013–2014
Presenter, 2nd CUA Workshop in Medieval Philosophy, Spring 2014

ACADEMIC SERVICE AND COMMITTEES

Failing Grades Committee, CUA University, Fall 2012–Spring 2015
Long Range Planning Committee, CUA School of Philosophy, 2013–2014
Reading List Committee, CUA School of Philosophy, 2009–2010

PASTORAL EXPERIENCE

Procurator, St. Albert's Priory, Fall 2015–present
Postulant and vocation retreats for active Sisters, 2013–present
Occasional assistance with German-language Masses in D.C. area, 2013–present
Regular assistance with Masses and Confessions, September 2008–present
(Canonically assigned to Holy Family Cathedral July 2007–July 2015)
Parochial Vicar at Holy Family Cathedral, Anchorage, Alaska, July 2007–July 2008
Ordained to the Priesthood, June 2007
Pastoral year, Holy Family Cathedral, Anchorage, Alaska, August 2003–June 2004
Entered the Dominican Order, August 1999